Established 1853.

MEN'S WEAR

Those Balbriggan Shirts advertised Friday night at $1.22 was a mistake. The price should have read 12 1/2c each. Pretty low price for a Balbriggan Shirt, isn't it?

NEW CHURCH DISTRICTS.

Several Members of Dr. Haines's Church Talking of a New Site.

There has been a tendency in this city to move churches from the downtown districts further north, and recently some of the members of the First Presbyterian Church have been talking about securing a site for a new church at the corner of Delaware and Seventh streets. Members of the Zion German Evangelical Church, on Ohio street, near Illinois street, have been anxious to secure another location for their congregation, and they wanted to secure the First Presbyterian property, at the corner of Pennsylvania and New York streets. If the German congregation could buy the First Presbyterian Church property the Presbyterian congregation would probably build a new church further north. A site at Delaware and Seventh streets has been offered for the Presbyterian congregation, but it is doubtful if any definite steps will be taken this summer. If a new church is built at this corner it would make a locality somewhat similar to that surrounding University Park, for two new churches are to go up this year in that neighborhood. An architect is expected this week from New York to design plans for a new Methodist church, at one of the corners of Delaware and Seventh streets. The Fourth Presbyterian Church folks are building a twenty-thousand-dollar church a few squares further north on Delaware street.

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY.

The Misses Fawn have returned from a visit to Mr. Cumback's family at Greensburg.

Mrs. Lewis Jordan, of Washington, D. C., is the guest of Mrs. H. R. Allen for a few weeks.

Mrs. A. D. Raab, of Earl Park, is a guest at the Classical School residence with her daughter.

The Ministerial Association will hold their annual outdoor meeting at Fairview Park Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Griffiths went to Lafayette yesterday to remain till Monday with relatives.

Mrs. T. P. Cobb, who has been spending five weeks with friends in Cincinnati, has returned home.

Mrs. Louise Harris, of West Superior, Wis., is the guest for a few days at the home of Mrs. J. W. Newman, No. 88 North Pennsylvania street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob P. Dunn have taken the cottage of Rev. J. A. Rondthaler at Maxinkuske, and will go there for three months.

The wedding of Miss Minnie McGregor and Dr. J. A. Craig is announced for June 5, at Acton. They will be at home at Greenwood after June 8.

Miss Eva O'Connell, of Chicago, who visited Mrs. J. A. Muburn last year, was married, Tuesday, at her home in Chicago to Mr. Leroy Percy Fearn.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Helen MacAlpine, of Indianapolis, to Mr. William H. Whitelide, the wedding to take place Wednesday evening, June 6.

The last meeting of the German Literary Club will be held at the residence of Mrs. T. A. Wagner on Broadway, with Mrs. Emily Fletcher will read a paper on "The German Literature of the Nineteenth Century."

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Wade, of College avenue, will leave on Monday for New York, and will leave on Wednesday by the Atlantic Coast Line.

Mr. Newton Claypool, who has been in California, all summer, will return to his home in Indianapolis, on Monday, with his wife, Mrs. E. P. Claypool. This evening he, with Mr. John Claypool and Mr. Frank Miller, will give a party at the home of Mrs. Mary Butler.

Miss Mary Butler has gone to Glendale to join her sister, Miss Annie Butler, who has been visiting her finishing year in school. Miss Butler will return home next week accompanied by her sister.

A number of the gentlemen friends of Dr. C. W. Biddinger gave him a surprise at his residence, at midnight, in honor of his birthday anniversary. The party was held in the secret and helped the entertainment along.

Mrs. Franklin Landers and daughter Esther will leave Monday for Bryn Mawr to attend the annual meeting of the Bryn Mawr Club, with Misses Julia and Pearl Landers. All four will visit Washington and New York before returning home.

Mrs. Zella Seguin Wallace was in the city yesterday, en route from Louisville to Cataraugus, where she will spend the summer. Mrs. Wallace will be at the Cataraugus festival with great success. After the song "The Star of Bethlehem," she recited four times. Mrs. Wallace will leave this morning for Cataraugus.

The Woman's Club held its open day meeting yesterday, and each member enjoyed the privilege of inviting one guest, there was a large audience present. Mrs. J. E. Cleland read a paper on "The Clouds," which was a very interesting experience of Rev. J. E. Cleland and his daughter, who have spent two months at Roanoke mountain, Tennessee—written by Mrs. E. P. Cleland. The paper was on "Local Color," descriptive of the peculiarities of certain parts of the country, dwelling on the "Southern" and "Western" of southern California, and "The Minister's Wooing" of New England.

Previous to the meeting, a literary conversation on "American Dialects," Miss Nicholas read a short sketch of Southern dialects. Light refreshments were served, and the meeting closed with a song.

The Union Veteran Legion will hold memorial exercises to-morrow night at Roberts Park Church.

There will be a meeting of the Old Soldiers' Mutual League at George H. Thomas Park Hall to-morrow morning.

Francis Murphy and his son, William J. Murphy, will conduct a meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at the corner of Meridian street and M. Church, on Sunday evening.

Next Monday night the Montefiore Society will give a theatrical entertainment at Maennerchor Hall, the performance to include one act of comedy and three acts of specialties.

Mr. F. W. Douglas, a former secretary of the association of the speakers at the men's rally at the Young Men's Christian Association to-morrow at 3:45 p. m. Subject, "Good Cheer."

Three drivers in the employ of the Artistic Ice Company were fined in the Police Court yesterday for advertising the company's enterprise by distributing free ice to the public.

The meeting of the National Association of Furniture Workers, which is to be in this city next week, will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Hall. It is expected that from three to four hundred delegates will be present.

News was received here last night of the death of Mrs. Hattie Allen, wife of Harvey W. Allen, and youngest daughter of the late Capt. A. L. Hunt, formerly of this city. Mrs. Allen died yesterday at the home of her mother, at Longwood, Fla. She had been ill for a long time.

Measures, Lynn B. and Clarence Martindale left yesterday for Alma, Col., and will spend the summer at the latter place. Mrs. Martindale was married in 1880 by Rev. E. B. and L. Martindale, but has not been working owing to distance from mills and railroad. The latter is now near and the mines can be made profitable.
